

The Bee Hive

An Opportunity!

In every one's life there is an opportunity to make a success, whether you make it so, all depends on your own judgement. When our Mr. M. Merz was in New York an opportunity to buy SIX HUNDRED PICTURES presented itself. The man with the CASH could get these pictures at HALF PRICE. We had the money, the only question with us was room. The one wall of our NEW ARCADE was empty; just the thing, so on MONDAY, OCTOBER 24th, we will start a sale of

Pictures 15c to $2.98

You shall be the judge if they are cheap. The subjects are fine and the pictures are beautiful. Christmas is eight weeks off, to be sure—nobody doubts that. Some beautiful presents among these pictures at about half what you intend paying. YOUR OPPORTUNITY IS HERE. YOU ARE THE JUDGE.

MERZ BROS.

P. S.—Mrs. W. W. Baldwin, Jr., won the hat, please call and select same.

No one in or near Maysville needs to be told that we had a rain yesterday, but for the benefit of those who live in sections not so favored we will say that about 6 o'clock last night it rained, hailed and blew for half an hour about as hard as anyone could wish. The storm was accompanied with vivid flashes of lightning, and many large limbs of trees were blown down throughout the city and electric wires damaged. In the county there was some damage reported to barns and other buildings.

An attempt has been made to fire Kirchner's hardware store at Manchester which was burglarized about ten days ago. Night Watchman Connelly fired four shots at a fleeing man without effect.

A caboose and two freight cars belonging to train No. 75 on the C. and O. were derailed at Wellsburg yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock blocking traffic over the main line until 8:20 when the track was cleared. No. 20, due here at 5:55, didn't get in until after 10 o'clock on account of the wreck. No one hurt.

The installation of Dr. Frederick W. Hinit as President of Central University, which took place in the Second Presbyterian Church at Danville Thursday morning was largely attended by representative Presbyterians and alumni of the institution in the State and from abroad. Both the Southern and Northern synods attended in a body.

W. B. Hawkins, President of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Association, addressed the largest crowd ever assembled in the court house at Cynthiana Thursday afternoon. He showed the workings of the tobacco trust and explained how the success of the Growers' Association would benefit the producers. He was given the closest attention. Mr. Hawkins promised that a receiving warehouse would be established there if the contracts were signed in sufficient numbers. Fully 75 per cent. of the crops were pledged to the association.

BOLD HOLD-UP.

Negro Highwayman Snatches a Former Maysville Lady's Purse at Lexington.

Shortly after dark Wednesday evening, on a street corner at Lexington, a bold negro thief snatched a hand-bag, containing a sum of money and other articles, from Mrs. Louise Buchignani, daughter of Mr. A. Bona formerly of this city, and sister of Mrs. Anna Fitzgerald.

Mrs. Buchignani, accompanied by a woman companion, was on her way to a wedding, and had reached the intersection of Second and Bruce streets, when a negro, concealed in the shadow of the fence at that point, sprang at her and snatched a hand-bag she was carrying. The violence of the negro's grasp broke the handle, but holding on, he started to run, when in his excitement he dropped the bag.

Mrs. Buchignani had by this time recovered sufficiently from her fright to realize what had happened, and seeing the bag fall to the ground, attempted to recover it, when the robber seized her by the arm and pushed her violently aside. In the struggle, the negro again secured possession, and made off in the darkness with his booty.

Both women were so badly frightened, that neither one of them was able to describe the fellow, except to note that he was a negro.

Mr. L. T. Anderson, Jr., of this city is said to have offered $25,000 for Abdallah Park near Cynthiana the other day, which was refused.

Dr. J. W. Porter, formerly pastor of the First Baptist Church here, will assist in a protracted meeting at Cynthiana, beginning November 6th.

Owing to the time required in getting a passport, Mr. R. S. Schwartz will not be able to leave for his trip to the Fatherland Monday. He may delay his visit until after the election.

The young ladies of the M. E. Church, South, will serve lunch next Saturday from 12 to 2 and supper from 5 to 9. Menu: Tomato bouillon, fried and raw oysters, Waldorf salad, bread and butter, coffee. All invited.

The box of law books found by officer Senteney on the river bank the other day are part of the library of the late Judge Henry Collings of Manchester and were sold last Monday to the party to whom the package was addressed.

Rev. Dr. W. C. Clark was released by the Southern Presbytery from the pastorate at Augusta and Sharon in order that he might accept a call at Livingston, Ala. There is some hope, however, that he may be induced to remain in Kentucky.

No services to-night at Third Street M. E. Church, but services to-morrow at 10:30 and 7 o'clock. At 2:30 p. m., Rev. A. B. Davidson will deliver an address to men only. "A good Investment" will be his subject. He will sing at every service. You are welcome.

The Court of Appeals in a case from Menifee County has decided that Assessors are not entitled to commissions on property listed exempted from taxation. The court says while an Assessor is required to gather statistics there is no provision for pay for such work.

County Attorney Hennessey, whose fight as tax inquisitor, brought to light the sensation in the Power will case at Brooksville, which resulted in T. S. Hamilton of Covington being indicted for false swearing, declares that he will in all probability collect between $20,000 and $30,000 back taxes from the estate. He has brought suit covering back taxes for a period of six years.

The Liberty Belles played to a good house here last night. The company is a large one and gave a fair performance. There was an abundance of music, but the singing was in the nature of a disappointment. The "radium ballet" was something new in these diggings and was a novel feature, but there was so very little of it,—perhaps on account of the response to frequent encores of the other numbers.

Mr. S. F. Sanborn, who built and operated the old Maysville and Lexington railroad and who with his family lived on Forest avenue up until seventeen years ago was in town Friday shaking hands with his old acquaintances. Mr. Sanborn is now a prosperous banker in the thriving city of Berkeley, California, a place of 20,000 population, across the bay from San Francisco. Mr. Sanborn notes little change in our city, but misses many of his old friends who have passed away since he lived here.

Steadily Striving to Raise the Standard—With This End in View, We Have Just Brought on a Full Line of LUCE REDMOND

MAHOGANY CHAIRS

Heretofore considered too fine for this trade. They are Crotch Mahogany, beautifully matched, superbly polished, designs and cabinet work fit for a king. Nothing is too good for a Kentuckian, especially if he lives in Mason County. We are firmly impressed with the advisability of buying good Furniture. That we are very persistent in our ideas is conceded even by our competitors. Look through the White Palace and be convinced of our determination to raise the standard of Furniture.
